Request for Proposal

Small Group Travel

For The University of Oklahoma

RFP# R-13098-13

5.0 SPECIFICATIONS (SUPPLIER COMPLETES)

5.1 Detailed Specifications

Required Information:

Please attach an additional page(s) to provide answers to the following questions.

1. How many people are required for group travel?
Anthony Travel clients can book groups as small as six passengers, while the industry standard is a minimum of ten. This benefit applies to American, Delta, Southwest, United, and Alaska Airlines.
2. Please provide a breakdown of deadlines for booking and for ticketing for group travel as related to the departure dates.
The requirements and deadlines vary from airline to airline, and can depend on variable items such as advance notice, etc... Commitment deadlines for group space are different when looking at space six months in advance versus two weeks in advance. Two of the unique benefits Anthony Travel provides are a waiver of the deposit requirements and reduction of the group qualification size from 10 passengers to 6 passengers.

Due to our preferred relationships we have reduced ticketing times. The following is a list of the major airline carriers and the corresponding ticketing guidelines for Anthony Travel clients versus standard industry ticketing requirements. Please note the significant benefit we receive on Delta bookings since their standard is 30 days after the booking date, not 30 days prior to travel.

Airline	Anthony Travel Ticketing Deadline	Industry Standard
United	3 days prior to departure	30 days prior
American	7 days prior to departure	21 days prior
Delta	30 days prior to departure	30 days after booking date
Southwest	30 days prior to departure	45 days prior

3. Please provide details of when the final list of passenger names must be provided as related to departure dates.
Passenger name lists must be provided at least one day in advance of the ticketing deadlines noted above.
4. Please provide information on procedures, deadlines, fees, etc. for passenger name or itinerary changes.
Athletic team travel has many situations that call for last minute flight changes, name changes on tickets and flight cancellations.

We understand that name changes are common in the world of collegiate athletic travel. Anthony Travel clients get free name changes on group bookings as follows:

- American Airlines: up to 48 hours prior to departure time (after that time, American does the name change and charges their $150 fee)
 - Delta Air Lines: up to 24 hours prior to departure time
 - Southwest Airlines: up to 72 hours prior to departure time
 - United Airlines: up to 24 hours prior to departure time
5. Please provide details of payment terms; i.e., deposits, final payment due date, etc. If deposits are required, provide information as to when they are due, whether they are refundable, do they apply to final ticket price, etc.

Typically, we can bring the majority of air charges, including consolidator tickets, through a university ghost card. For those instances when the ghost card cannot be utilized, we either bill to a designated University Procurement Card or set up direct billing on behalf of the University. We are equipped and accustomed to managing advance payments and deposits to secure reservations for university groups.

6. Would you be willing to accept a University Ghost pcard as a method of payment?
Yes. Almost all of our university travel partners utilize a ghost card to purchase and track their travel expenses. We also provide full electronic credit card reconciliation to our university travel partners on a monthly basis.
7. With the understanding of our typical small group travel needs; i.e. last minute final passenger names, possibility of last minute itinerary changes, etc., please offer any comparisons, suggestions, pros and cons, and other further information on booking travel as small group or as individual passengers.
Pros of booking a small group versus an individual ticket are the ability to secure space in advance without having to issue tickets and the ability to make name changes.

A benefit of booking individual tickets is that the airlines may have a certain fare at a given time that is lower than the group fare.

8. Please provide any additional information which you feel would be beneficial to us for planning and travel purposes.
ATI excels at catering to the unique travel needs of administrators, officials, teams, coaches, alumni, and fans. We are committed to providing the most cost-efficient, time-effective travel solutions available. It is our mission to enhance the overall travel experience of your competing student-athletes, coaches and fans.

ATI also organizes team travel and special interest group trips to athletic events around the world. In this capacity, we partner with client institutions to provide comprehensive travel services for university officials, alumni, boosters, and fans: including marketing, registration, travel arrangements, fulfillment, logistics, event planning and on-site assistance.

ATI organizes international team trips for college teams in sports like basketball, field hockey, tennis, golf, lacrosse, baseball, softball, soccer, football, and more. We arrange games, practice, air, hotel, ground transportation, meals, and educational tours.

5.2 Pricing

We understand that ticket prices are determined by the airlines and would be quoted at the time of the purchase of those tickets. While we are not seeking prices for specific travel itineraries, we are seeking to identify and establish any fees or costs associated with booking and revising travel plans for small groups. Please make sure that your response includes all information required to sufficiently answer the questions in Section 5.1 including providing any and all fees which the University might incur when booking or revising small group travel plans.

Anthony Travel holds preferred airline agreements with major airline carriers, as well as preferred status with airline group desks. We work closely with these group desks to negotiate the best fare. We also belong to multiple travel consortiums. Whether through group desk relationships or consortiums, our travel professionals will always work to get you the best available fare.

The University of Oklahoma will pay Anthony Travel a transaction fee of $25 per ticket.
